BY-LAWS.

ARTICLE I.

SEC. 1. The corporate name of this Club shall be THE CRESCENT ATHLETIC CLUB OF BROOKLYN.

SEC. 2. Its object shall be the promotion and cultivation of social intercourse and athletic games and exercises among its members.

ARTICLE II.

MANAGEMENT.

SEC. 1. The management and direction of the affairs of the Club shall be exercised by a Board of Directors (hereinafter called the Governing Committee), of eighteen members, who shall be elected in classes of six, each year, at the annual meeting of the Club, by the Club at large, to serve for a term of three years, or until successors be elected.

SEC. 2. There shall be elected by the Governing Committee each year, from among its own members, a President, a Vice-President, a Secretary, a Treasurer, an Investigating Committee of three, a Finance Committee of two, a Membership Committee of three, a House Committee of three, an Athletic Committee of five.

SEC. 3. The Governing Committee may also elect from among the members at large a Second Vice-President.

SEC. 4. The Second Vice-President shall perform such duties as may, from time to time, be prescribed by the Governing Committee, and may receive such salary or emolument as the Governing Committee may, from time to time, prescribe.

ARTICLE III.

GOVERNING COMMITTEE.

SEC. 1. The Governing Committee shall elect members. They shall direct the general management of the affairs of the Club, and control its funds and finances. They shall instruct officers and committees in their duties, and shall have power to overrule and set aside any actions of, or to decide any matter in dispute between such officers and committees. They shall decide all questions not determined in the By-Laws, and fix and enforce penalties for violation of rules or improper conduct on the part of the members, with full power to censure, suspend, or expel any member for cause.

SEC. 2. It shall be the duty of every member of the Governing Committee, in the absence of members of the special committees charged with such duties, to take cognizance of and prevent any infraction of the rules of the Club, or improper conduct on the part of the members.

SEC. 3. Any member of the Governing Committee who shall absent himself from three consecutive regular meetings of the Committee, without permission or excuse, shall be deemed to have resigned and shall cease to be a member of the Committee.

SEC. 4. If any vacancies shall occur in the Governing Committee, they shall be filled until the next annual election by vote of the Committee.

SEC. 5. Regular meetings of the Governing Committee shall be held once in each month and special meetings may be held at any time, by direction of the President or at the request of five members of the Committee. Notice of all meetings shall be given in writing to the members of the Committee.

SEC. 6. Ten members shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business, and the order of business shall be as follows:

1. Reading of Minutes.
2. Report of Treasurer.
3. Report of Investigating Committee.
4. Report of Membership Committee.
5. Election and Resignation of Members.
6. Reports of Standing Committees.
7. Reports of Special Committees.
8. Deferred or Unfinished Business.
9. New Business.

This order may be altered or suspended by a majority vote of the members present,

SEC. 7. The rules of order prescribed in Cushing's Manual shall govern the proceedings of all meetings of the Club and of the Governing Committee.

ARTICLE IV.

DUTIES OF OFFICERS AND STANDING COMMITTEES.

SEC. 1. The President shall preside at meetings of the Club and of the Governing Committee, preserve order, appoint committees except when otherwise ordered, and generally exercise the customary functions of presiding officer; he shall vote only in cases of equal division, except at the election of officers or members. He shall make an Annual Report of the affairs of the Club, together with such recommendations and suggestions as he may deem proper. This report shall be submitted to the Governing Committee for approval, and after approval or amendment by that body, as they may see fit, a copy thereof, together with a copy of the Annual Report of the Treasurer, shall be sent to each member at least three days before the date of the annual meeting.

SEC. 2. The Vice-President, shall perform the duties and exercise the functions of the President, in case of his absence or disability. In the absence of both President and Vice President, a temporary Chairman may be elected to preside at any meeting.

SEC. 3. The Secretary shall keep accurate minutes of the proceedings of the Club and of the Governing Committee, and shall submit the same for approval at each successive meeting. He shall notify members of their election, suspension or expulsion, inform committees of their appointment and of the duties assigned to them, and generally conduct the correspondence and keep the records of the Club. He shall have charge and custody of its corporate seal.

SEC. 4. The Treasurer shall collect and receive all money due to the Club from every source, and shall disburse the same under direction of the Governing Committee. He shall keep accurate accounts in the books of the Club of all receipts and disbursements, and shall make report thereof at each regular meeting of the Committee, and shall also report from time to time the names of all members in arrears. At the expiration of his term of office he shall make a full annual report of the financial affairs of the Club.

SEC. 5. The Investigating Committee shall take cognizance of all matters pertaining to the violations of the rules of the Club, and the non-payment of indebtedness by the members, and shall make reports thereon to the Governing Committee from time to time, with such recommendations as they may deem proper.

Any member accused of violation of the rules, or conduct detrimental to the interests of the Club, or being in default for pecuniary obligations, may at his own option accept the jurisdiction of and appear before this Committee to explain or excuse the offense or default, but nothing herein contained shall be so construed as to deprive him of his right to trial before the Governing Committee, if he so elects.

SEC. 6. The Finance Committee, in conjunction with the President, who shall ex-officio, be a member thereof, shall have general supervision over the finances and accounts of the Club. They shall examine the report of the Treasurer and compare the same with the books of the Club and shall audit and approve the annual report before the same is presented to the members.

They shall have power to employ an expert accountant to audit the books at stated intervals and shall make reports from time to time to the Governing Committee with such recommendations as they may deem proper.

SEC. 7. The Membership Committee shall inquire into the qualifications of all candidates for membership, and shall make reports thereon to the Governing Committee, from time to time. All communications received by, or information furnished to this Committee, shall be considered confidential, and shall not be divulged outside of the Committee meetings. They shall receive all resignations of members, applications for transfer to and from the non-resident list, and shall make reports thereon to the Governing Committee, with such recommendations as they may deem proper.

SEC. 8. The House Committee shall have the general management of the Club Houses and their appurtenances, and shall be charged with the enforcement of the By-Laws and House Rules of the Club. They shall purchase all articles necessary for the ordinary purposes of the Club, and shall audit and approve the pay rolls, and bills and accounts before their payment by the Treasurer; provided that no expenditure exceeding $250 in amount, except for ordinary and necessary house supplies, shall be passed upon by this Committee without special authority from the Governing Committee. They shall fix and regulate the prices to be charged for articles sold by the Club, and all house privileges offered to the members. They shall hire and discharge its servants and employees, except such as may be employed by the Governing or Athletic Committee. They shall receive and act upon complaints made by the members relating to the management and use of the Club House. They shall make such rules as they may deem proper, regulating the terms of credit which members may enjoy in respect to house charges.

SEC. 9. The Athletic Committee shall have the general management of the Club grounds, the boat-house, and their appurtenances, and shall be charged with the enforcement of all rules pertaining to the use thereof by the members. They shall purchase such articles as may be necessary for their purposes, and shall audit and approve the pay rolls and vouchers therefor, before their payment by the Treasurer; provided that no expenditure exceeding $250 in amount shall be passed upon by this Committee without special authority from the Governing Committee. They shall fix and regulate the prices to be charged for privileges to be offered to the members in connection with athletic and outdoor interests. They shall hire and discharge such servants and employees as may be necessary for their purposes. They shall receive and act upon complaints made by the members relating to athletic or outdoor interests. They shall make such regulations as they may deem proper, for the selection and government of crews and teams, and shall regulate and authorize all competitions and matches within the Club and with other organizations. No member or team shall engage in any contest or competition in the name of the Club without the authorization of this Committee.

SEC. 10. The Standing Committees, subject to the approval of the Governing Committee, shall from time to time make rules and regulations for the government of the members on all matters not provided for in these By-Laws, and such rules, after being duly posted or otherwise brought to the notice of the members, shall have all the force and effect of the By-Laws of the Club.

SEC. 11. The Standing Committees shall hold regular meetings at such intervals as the Governing Committee may from time to time direct, and shall have power to adopt rules for their own government, and alter the same at pleasure.

SEC. 12. Subject to the ratification and approval of the Governing Committee, the House Committee and the Athletic Committee may each, from time to time, nominate and appoint Sub-committees, and assign to them duties in their respective departments. The Chairman of each of such Sub-committees shall be a member of the Governing Committee, and the remaining members, the number of which shall be determined by the appointing Committee, may be selected from the Club at large. These Committees shall hold office at the pleasure of the appointing Committee and until their successors are appointed. They shall make regulations regarding the matters under their charge, and after approval by the Appointing and Governing Committees, such regulations shall be brought to the notice of the members and shall have all the force and effect of the By-Laws of the Club. They shall appoint Captains, Managers or Directors in their respective departments, and the appointment of such officers may be from their own body. They shall have no power to make contracts or to expend money except as expressly authorized in writing by the Appointing Committee. The Chairman of each of said Sub-committees shall have power to veto and set aside any action taken by his Committee, and shall make report to the Appointing Committee of every case in which this power is exercised.

ARTICLE V.

NOMINATING COMMITTEE.

SEC. 1. At the Annual Meeting of the Club, or at an adjournment thereof, there shall be chosen a Nominating Committee, to consist of five members of the Club not members of the Governing Committee. It shall be the duty of this Committee to prepare and report to the Club a ticket for the annual election occurring next after their own appointment. Such ticket shall be prepared and posted on the Bulletin-board at least thirty days prior to the date of the Annual Meeting. This Committee shall hold office for one year, and any vacancy occurring therein shall be filled, as soon as practicable after its occurrence, by vote of the remaining members of the Committee.

SEC. 2. Any five or more members of the Club may, in like manner, prepare and report to the Club a ticket for the annual election; provided that such ticket must be prepared and posted on the Bulletin-board at least fifteen days prior to the date of the Annual Meeting.

SEC. 3. Members who are thus nominated, and whose names appear on a ticket prepared and posted as hereinbefore prescribed, and no others, shall be eligible for election to membership in the Governing Committee.

SEC. 4. It shall be the duty of the Secretary to notify the members of all nominations made in accordance with the foregoing requirements.

ARTICLE VI.

MEMBERSHIP.

SEC. 1. Gentlemen of good standing in the community, not under eighteen years of age, shall be eligible to membership in this Club.

SEC. 2. All candidates for membership must be proposed and seconded by two members, over their proper signatures, in a book provided for that purpose at the City Club House; such proposal must set forth the name, occupation, and ordinary address of the candidate. The names of all candidates must be submitted to the Membership Committee, and be conspicuously posted on the Bulletin-board of the Club for at least ten days before election.

SEC. 3. Candidates must be made known personally to a member of the Governing Committee before election.

SEC. 4. Upon compliance with the foregoing requirements, and upon the favorable report of the Membership Committee, the names of candidates shall be submitted to the Governing Committee for election. A vote shall then be taken by ballot, and two negative votes shall exclude the candidate from membership.

SEC. 5. Within thirty days after notice of election, candidates shall qualify by payment to the Treasurer of the prescribed entrance fee and current dues, or such election may be declared null and void.

SEC. 6. Candidates who have failed of election, or who fail to qualify after election, shall not be again presented for membership until after the expiration of one year.

SEC. 7. Members shall be subject to entrance fee, dues, fines and penalties, as hereinafter prescribed; they shall have access to and use of the property of the Club, subject to the provisions of the By-Laws and the Rules of the Club.

SEC. 8. Persons residing without the limits of New York City, may be admitted as non-resident members, on payment of one-half the rate of entrance fee and dues chargeable to resident members.

SEC. 9. Commissioned officers in the United States Army, Navy, or Marine Corps may be admitted as special members without payment of the entrance fee, but shall be subject to dues at the current rate for resident members.

SEC. 10. By consent of the Governing Committee and upon payment of the sum of five hundred dollars, any person now a member of or who may hereafter be admitted to membership in the Club, may be classed as a Life Member, and shall thereafter be exempt from payment of annual dues; provided that the number of such Life Members shall not exceed one hundred at any one time; and further provided that application for admission to this class shall be considered strictly in order of application. All receipts from the sale of Life Memberships shall be placed in the Sinking Fund, and the Second Mortgage Bonds of the Club shall be accepted at their face value in payment of such memberships. Life Members shall form a special class, and shall not be considered in determining the number of resident members under Section 14 of Article VI.

SEC. 11. Members wishing to withdraw from the Club may do so, upon presentation of written resignation; provided all obligations to the Club be first discharged. Persons resigning, or otherwise ceasing to be members of the Club, shall forfeit all right, title and interest in its property and funds.

SEC. 12. Members may be censured, or suspended, or expelled from the Club for violation of its rules, for conduct detrimental to its interests, or for non-payment of pecuniary obligations; provided that the penalty of suspension or expulsion shall only be enforced after trial and conviction of the offender at a meeting of the Governing Committee, by a vote of two-thirds of those present voting, the member first having due notice of the charges made against him, and of the time and place of holding such meeting, and having the right to be present and answer and defend himself,

SEC. 13. Every member shall furnish the officers of the Club with the address to which notices shall be sent, in default of which a letter addressed to him and placed in the Club letter-box, shall be a sufficient service of any notice to which he may be entitled.

SEC. 14. The resident membership shall be limited to fifteen hundred.

ARTICLE VII.

ENTRANCE FEES, DUES, FINES, ETC.

SEC. 1. The entrance fee for resident members shall be such amount as may be, from time to time, prescribed by the Governing Committee; provided that the fee for candidates proposed for membership on or before the 31st day of August, 1897, shall not be in excess of twenty-five dollars. (The present entrance fee is twenty-five dollars.)

SEC. 2. The annual dues for resident members shall be fifty dollars per annum. Dues shall be due and payable semi-annually in advance, on the fifteenth days of March and September in each year.

SEC. 3. New members shall pay the proportion of dues corresponding to the unexpired portion of the current half-year; computed monthly, and dating from the 15th day of the month in which they are elected. Members resigning shall pay all dues that have accrued up to the date of the receipt of their resignation by the Club.

SEC. 4. Members shall be subject to such fines as may be prescribed, for violations of the House, Ground, or other Rules of the Club, or for damage done to the property.

SEC. 5. At the time and in the manner prescribed for the election of officers of the Club, there shall be elected by the Governing Committee in the year 1899 from among the members of the Club, three Trustees of the Sinking Fund, one to serve for three years, one to serve for two years, and one to serve for one year; and thereafter, there shall be elected annually, one Trustee to serve for three years to replace the one whose term of office is about to expire. Resignation from the Club shall vacate the office of Trustee, and vacancies from this or any other cause, shall be filled at once by the Governing Committee, by election for the unexpired term. No member of the Governing Committee shall be eligible for the office of Trustee of the Sinking Fund.

It shall be the duty of the Trustees of the Sinking Fund to receive and hold in trust for the benefit and use of the Club, all moneys, securities, or property paid, delivered or transferred to them in accordance with the following provisions:

There shall be paid over and delivered to said Trustees, all receipts from the sale of Life Memberships, either in money or bonds, all moneys received for initiation fees, and such additional amount from the annual dues as the Governing Committee may appropriate for this purpose from time to time. The Trustees shall disburse the moneys of the Sinking Fund as follows:

The first moneys received shall be applied to the purchase from the Club of the Second Mortgage Bonds now held in the Treasury. Thereafter the receipts of the Sinking Fund may be used for the purchase of land necessary for the purposes of the Club, for the erection of buildings or the construction of permanent improvements on the lands of the Club, or for the purchase of any of the bonded obligations of the Club, as may be determined from time to time, by the concurrent action of two-thirds of the Trustees and two-thirds of the Governing Committee.

Any bonds of the Club acquired by the Trustees may be sold for any of the purposes hereinbefore set forth. It shall be the duty of the Trustees to safely invest any surplus not appropriated for the foregoing purposes, in such securities as are allowed by law for the investment of Trust Funds.

ARTICLE VIII.

ARREARS.

SEC. 1. Any member failing to pay his house charges, or other indebtedness to the Club, in accordance with the requirements of the Committees, or who fails to pay his dues within one month from the date upon which they are due, shall be considered in arrears, and shall have notice to that effect sent to him, together with a copy of this By-Law. If such arrears be not paid within five days next thereafter, his name, together with the amount of his indebtedness, shall be posted on the Bulletin-board, and his credit may be suspended, at the discretion of the House Committee.

SEC. 2. At the expiration of one month from the date of the first notice, if such arrears remain unpaid, a second notice shall be forwarded to the member in default, notifying him to appear before the Governing Committee, and show cause why he should not be expelled from the Club for non-payment of his pecuniary obligations.

ARTICLE IX.

CLUB MEETINGS.

SEC. 1. The annual meeting of the Club shall be held on the third Saturday of January in each year, at eight o'clock P. M., at the City Club House, and may be adjourned from time to time when necessary.

SEC. 2. Special meetings of the Club may be called by the President, in his discretion, and shall be called at the written request of not less than fifty members. Requests for and notices of all special meetings shall state the object for which the meeting is called, and no other business than that so stated shall be considered, unless by consent of two-thirds of those present voting.

SEC. 3. At each annual meeting the President, or presiding officer, shall appoint from the members present three or more tellers or inspectors of election, whose duty it shall be to take charge of the ballot-box, which box shall be kept open between the hours of eight and ten o'clock P. M. After receiving all qualified votes, offered by the members up to the hour of ten o'clock P. M., the tellers shall close the polls and proceed to count the votes, and make announcement of the result to the presiding officer as soon as practicable.

SEC. 4. There shall be elected by ballot in the manner hereinbefore prescribed, at each annual meeting, Directors, or members of the Governing Committee, to replace all those whose terms of office are about to expire; the persons so elected shall serve for the term of three years, or for the remainder of such term in cases of persons elected to fill vacancies temporarily filled by the Governing Committee.

SEC. 5. There shall also be chosen by ballot or by open vote, as may be determined at each meeting, a Nominating Committee of five, to serve as prescribed in Article V., Section 1, of these By-Laws.

SEC. 6. A quorum for the transaction of business shall be twenty-five members, and a majority of all votes cast shall decide. The order of business shall be as follows:

1. Reading of Minutes.
2. Reports of Officers.
3. Deferred or Unfinished Business.
4. New Business.

This order may be suspended by a majority vote.

SEC. 7. Notice of Club meetings shall be conspicuously posted on the Bulletin-board, and shall be sent by mail to all members.

ARTICLE X.

GENERAL REGULATIONS.

SEC. 1. No stakes, bets or wagers of any kind shall be laid, made or played for, in or about the houses or grounds of the Club.

SEC. 2. No advertisement, subscription paper or petition, except such as relate to club affairs, shall be posted or circulated, nor shall anything be exposed or offered for sale in the Club Houses, except by permission from the House Committee.

SEC. 3. Visitors, and members of the household of Club members, may upon proper nomination, be admitted temporarily to limited memberships in the Club, provided that only such privileges as may be conferred by the rules of the House and Athletic Committees shall attach to limited memberships; and further provided that such memberships may be summarily terminated by order of the House Committee or by resolution of the Governing Committee.

SEC. 4. No person other than a member of the Club shall be admitted to the Club Houses, except upon the personal introduction of a member; and the admission and entertainment of personally introduced guests shall be subject to such restrictions as may be prescribed in the House Rules.

SEC. 5. A general Bulletin-board shall be kept in a conspicuous place in the City Club House, on which shall be displayed all notices required by the By-Laws. The names of all officers and standing committees, together with dates on which regular meetings of such committees are appointed, shall also be displayed on this board. This board shall be under the control of the House Committee.

SEC. 6. Athletic Bulletin-boards may be placed in all the Club Houses, upon which shall be displayed notices to the members relating to athletics and outdoor interests. These boards shall be under the control of the Athletic Committee.

SEC. 7. Complaints by the members must be made either by entry in one of the complaint books provided for that purpose, or by letter addressed to the Committee having the subject matter in charge.

SEC. 8. The Club color shall be dark red.

ARTICLE XI.

AMENDMENTS.

SEC. 1. Amendments to these By-Laws shall be first submitted to the Governing Committee, and when approved by a majority vote of the whole number of said Committee, they may be voted on at any regular or special meeting of the Club, notice of the proposed amendment having first been given to all members, and conspicuously posted on the Bulletin-board, at least ten days previous to the date of the meeting. It shall then require the affirmative vote of at least two-thirds of the members present voting to carry such amendment.

HOUSE RULES.

I.

Members must sign vouchers for all supplies and privileges. Accounts will be kept and monthly bills rendered. If any bill is not paid on or before the 15th day of the month in which it is rendered the defaulting member will be in arrears. If arrears are not paid within five days next thereafter, and same amount to Five dollars or over, the name of the member and amount of arrears will be posted on the Bulletin.

II.

Members posted for arrears will not be entitled to further credit and no service will be furnished them until arrears are discharged. Members posted for two consecutive months for amounts in excess of $25 will thereafter have their credit limited to $25 until further action of the House Committee.

The House Committee reserves the right to otherwise suspend or limit the credit of any member, for cause.

Vouchers for paid bills will be retained at the office for sixty days, and will be delivered, or sent by mail, to members upon their application.

III.

The City House will be opened at 7 o'clock A. M., and closed at 2 o'clock A. M. throughout the year.

The Country House will be opened at 7 o'clock A. M., and closed at 11.30 o'clock P. M., during the season. In the winter the upper dining room will be opened as a general Club room.

The supply room in the City House will be closed at 1.30 o'clock A.M.

The supply room in the Country House will be closed at 11.15 o'clock P. M.

IV.

The main Dining Room in the City House will be opened at 7.30 A. M., and closed at 12.15 A. M. Table d'hote dinner and lunch will be served daily in this room. A la carte service at all hours.

V.

A la carte lunch, dinner and supper will be served in the Grill Room. Table d'hote meals will not be served in this room and dishes ordered from main dining room will be subject to a la carte prices.

Cold dishes, sandwiches, etc., will be served at all hours.

VI.

The Dining Rooms in the Country House will be opened at 7 o'clock A. M., and closed at 11.15 P. M.

Table d'hote Breakfast, Luncheon and Dinner will be served daily during the season. A la carte service at all hours.

Ladies and minors will be served only in the upper room, and smoking is prohibited in this room during the summer season. There is no restriction upon the use of this room by members unaccompanied by ladies.

In the lower room, the regular table d'hote dinner will be served, and also a training table dinner at a reduced price. Smoking is allowed in this room at all times.

VII.

The Private Dining Rooms may be used by parties of not less than four; a service charge of 25 cents per plate will be made in these rooms.

Large dinner parties may be arranged for in advance by application to the House Committee. Guests may attend at entertainments in private rooms without restrictions as to residence. Subscription dinners must be limited to Club members and their guests.

VIII.

Two annual subscriptions will be permitted for employees. One the "Summer Fund," will be for the Bay Ridge employees, and the other, the "Christmas Fund," will be for the general employees.

To these funds members may subscribe at their pleasure, otherwise no fee or gratuity shall be given at any time to any employee of the Club.

Members offering fees to servants will subject themselves to discipline, and servants receiving fees will be discharged.

IX.

Members are not allowed to send servants out of the Club House.

X.

No advertising or subscription paper can be circulated or posted in the Club House, nor can any articles be offered for sale unless by express permission from the House Committee.

XI.

No dogs will be permitted within either of the Club Houses.

XII.

All breakage, damage or injury to the property of the Club caused by carelessness or neglect of the members will be charged for at cost of replacement.

XIII.

No stakes, bets or wagers can be laid, made or played for in or about the houses or grounds of the Club.

XIV.

Applications for Lockers may be made at the office, and assignments will be made in order of application.

Hats, coats, umbrellas, canes and small packages may be checked at the Coat Room. Valuables may be deposited with the clerks at the office.

The Club assumes no financial responsibility for any personal property checked or left in the lockers.

Cab service, at special rates, may be obtained by the members upon application at the desk.

Umbrellas may be hired at the Coat Room.

XV.

A barber will be in attendance on Bowling Alley floor of the City House throughout the year.

During the season a barber will be at the Boat House in the country, on days and hours which will be duly announced.

The barber will not cut hair or trim beards on Sundays and Holidays.

There will be a bootblack in the barber's department of the City House, and no charge will be made for cleaning shoes.

XVI.

The bed rooms in the City House will be rented for fixed terms at the rate of $300 per year, or $30 per month. Transient rooms at $1.50 per day.

The bed rooms at the Country House will be rented for the season from June 15th to September 15th, and the choice of rooms will be sold at auction, of which due notice will be given. Transient rooms at $1.00 per day.

Service of meals or refreshments in bed rooms is subject to an extra charge.

Members renting rooms will be charged rental for the whole term for which they are taken, but in case of temporary absence, the rooms may be sublet for their account to transient guests.

XVII.

Members may use the Gymnasium and Swimming Tank free of charge, but shall be subject to such rules as are prescribed by the Director.

Smoking is not permitted, nor will any refreshments be served in the Gymnasium.

Members are required to use the shower bath before entering the swimming tank.

Members going to and from the tank and gymnasium must wear a robe, if not in ordinary costume. Robes will be furnished free by the attendants.

Turkish Bath tickets may be purchased at the office.

XVIII.

The Billiard and Card Rooms in the City House will close at 12:30 o'clock A.M., and in the Country House at 11:30 o'clock P.M. Notice will be given to players fifteen minutes before these hours. At the City House any players desiring to continue until 2 o'clock A.M. will be charged $1.00 each extra, but new games may not be started after 11:30 o'clock A.M.

The Bowling Alleys in the City House will close at 12 o'clock midnight and in the Country House at 11 o'clock P. M., after which hours no playing is permitted.

The Billiard, Chess and Card Rooms in both houses and the Bowling Alleys in the City House will be closed on Sundays.

When other members notify the attendants of their desire to play, a set of players can hold a pool or billiard table for one hour, only, from the time they commenced to play.

No round games, or games of hazard are allowed to be played in the Club Houses.

Stakes, bets or wagers upon any game are forbidden, but the playing of games for the cost of service, or for ordinary refreshments is not considered a violation of this rule.

Billiards, 40 cts. per hour; Continuous or Dutch Pool, 60 cts. per hour (at the City House before 5 o'clock P. M., 40 cts. per hour); Pyramid Pool, 5 cts. a cue.

Cards, 15 cts. per each player, the cards used remaining the property of the Club.

Bowling, 10 cts. per game for each player.

There is no charge for playing Chess, Checkers, Dominoes, etc.

XIX.

Members must not indulge in conversation in the Library and Chess Rooms. It is essential to the proper use of these rooms that silence should prevail.

Newspapers, magazines, and periodicals must not be taken to the sleeping rooms. Books may be so taken, but in every case a card must be placed in the space from which the book is taken, and the book returned promptly after use.

Cutting extracts from, marking on, or otherwise defacing books, periodicals or newspapers will subject the member to discipline.

XX.

With the approval of the House Committee gentlemen residing without the limits of New York City may be admitted temporarily to limited membership upon the application of any member in good standing, which application must be made in writing upon the blanks provided for that purpose. No person shall enjoy this privilege oftener than once in any six months, and the term of such membership shall be limited to fifteen days. No member shall have more than one nominee on the limited membership list at any one time. Cards will be furnished to limited members which must be displayed on request and surrendered at the time the membership terminates.

Members may personally introduce visitors to the Club House as follows: Gentlemen residing without the limits of New York City may be introduced to each Club House no oftener than fifteen times in any one year.

Gentlemen residing within the limits of New York City may be introduced to each Club House once, only, in each calendar year.

These restrictions run against the visitor, irrespective of the member or number of members who may wish to so introduce him.

The privilege of personal introduction of guests may be suspended by the House Committee on special Club occasions.

Gentlemen, resident or non-resident, may attend entertainments given by members in private rooms in either Club House, irrespective of the foregoing restrictions, but shall enjoy no other privileges of the Club House by reason of this rule.

With the approval of the House Committee, ladies of the household and minor sons of members may be admitted temporarily to limited membership upon the application of any member in good standing, which application must be made in writing upon the blanks provided for that purpose. The term of such membership shall not exceed one year, but it may be renewed from time to time, upon a renewed application.

Limited resident membership shall confer only such privileges as may be allowed under the rules of the Athletic Committee, on the grounds at Bay Ridge; and the privileges of the upper Dining Room in the Country House. No person shall be admitted to, or enjoy any privileges in the City House by reason of limited resident membership. Cards will be furnished to limited resident members, which must be displayed on request, and surrendered at the time the membership terminates.

Ladies and minors, accompanied by members, may visit the Country House and grounds, and may be entertained in the upper dining room and on the south end of the piazza only.

Ladies and children are not allowed in the City House.

All personally introduced guests must be registered in the Visitors Books provided for that purpose, by the member introducing them. A compliance with this rule is a condition precedent to the entertainment of any guest.

No guest shall be permitted to order or pay for supplies or privileges, nor shall any entertainment be given in the Club Houses to which non-members are admitted by subscription or contribution.

The privileges of any limited member, visitor or guest may be summarily terminated for cause, by any member of the Governing Committee.

The introducing member shall in all cases be responsible for any debts incurred by a limited member, resident or non-resident.

The House Committee reserves the right to temporarily suspend restrictive rules, upon unusual occasions, and to grant special privileges of entertainment in its discretion.

Rules of the Membership Committee.

I.

Candidates must be proposed and seconded by two members of the Club, each signing his name personally in the candidates' book provided for that purpose. The Committee will not recognize signatures made by proxy or by attorney; nor will they consider the qualifications of any candidate for membership until his residence, occupation and business address shall have been entered in the candidates' book.

II.

When a candidate's name shall have been duly entered in the candidates' book, information blanks will be mailed at once to the proposer and to the seconder, and such blanks must be filled in and signed by the proposer and seconder, respectively, and returned by mail to the Membership Committee at the City Club House.

III.

Unless the candidate be personally known to some member of the Membership Committee, he must be presented to such Committee AT ONE OF ITS MEETINGS (of which due notice will be given) by the proposer or by some member of the Club. The information blanks must in all cases be returned to the Committee, duly filled in and signed, BEFORE the candidate is presented as required by this rule.

IV.

The Committee will not make favorable report on any nomination for membership until the foregoing rules shall have been fully complied with.

V.

Candidates for membership who may be specially recommended by the Athletic Committee may, by unanimous consent of the Governing Committee, be given precedence in order of election over other candidates not so recommended.

Rules of the Investigating Committee.

Members notified to appear before this Committee to excuse default in payment of pecuniary obligations must attend in person; written excuses will not be considered by the Committee.

If full amount of indebtedness is paid before the date of the Committee Meeting, no attendance will be necessary.

Members expelled for non-payment of charges can only be reinstated by action of the Governing Committee. Application for reinstatement should be made in writing, and must set forth the grounds upon which such application is made.

Boat-House Rules and Regulations.

I.

All Club boats, except such as may be reserved by the Captain for the use of crews in training, shall at all times be at the disposal of members of the Club.

II.

Members rowing in Club boats must wear the Club uniform.

III.

Members taking out boats must see them properly stowed away on the racks when returned to the Boat House.

IV.

Members breaking or damaging boats or other Club property will be charged with the cost of repairs; and no member shall loan any Club property to a non-member without the permission of the Captain.

V.

No Club boat shall be kept away from the Boat House over-night except by permission of the Captain.

VI.

No Club boat, except an eight-oared boat, shall be taken out by less than the number of rowers required to form a complete crew; and an eight-oared boat shall not be taken out by less than six rowers.

VII.

No Club boat shall be taken from the Boat House unless at least one-half of the crew be members.

VIII.

Members wishing to reserve boats will send notice in writing three days in advance to the Captain at the Boat House.

IX.

The Boat House must be opened and closed at the same hours as the Bay Ridge Club House, and visitors will be admitted under the general rules governing the Club.

X.

Bathers must wear full bathing suit, consisting of trunks and shirt.

XI.

Lockers in the Boat House at an annual charge of two dollars may be had upon application at the office.

XII.

All complaints should be addressed in writing to the Captain at the Boat House.

Should the cause of complaint require immediate action, the matter should be referred to the Captain, Lieutenant, Coxswain or other officer in charge of the Boat House at the time.

XIII.

Ladies are not admitted to the Boat House.

Rules Regulating the Use of Tennis Courts.

I.

A Tennis Court may be used only when in proper condition. In the absence of a member of the Athletic Committee, the Superintendent of the grounds will determine the condition of the Court, and his decision shall be final.

II.

All persons using the Courts must wear tennis shoes. This rule will be strictly enforced.

III.

Members are privileged to occupy Tennis Courts for the best two out of three sets only, when other members are waiting to play. Members desiring to play and waiting for Courts to be vacated must register their name on the Bulletin-board provided for that purpose, and as the Courts are relinquished they will be assigned to such members in the order of registry.

If at any time there is a preference for a particular Court that is being played upon, said Court shall be vacated in favor of the next applicants for it who shall have registered their names as above provided.

IV.

Visitors may be invited to use the Tennis Courts on Mondays and Thursdays, holidays excepted.

V.

Ladies provided with regular cards of admission will be permitted to use the Tennis Courts on week days (Saturdays excepted) until 1 o'clock P. M., and when accompanied by a member, on Thursday afternoons until 4 P. M. On holidays these privileges will be suspended.

VI.

Special athletic privileges may be granted by the Athletic Committee in exceptional cases.

Tennis balls may be had at the office in the Club House.

Golf Rules.

No player, caddy or onlooker should move or talk during a stroke.

No player should drive from tee until parties ahead are out of range, or play to the putting green until parties ahead have holed out and moved away; players after holing out must leave the green at once.

Parties shall start from first tee in the order in which their balls are dropped on same.

Right of way:—1st, Pairs.

2nd, Foursome, (2 balls).

3rd, All others are equal.

Players with caddies may pass players without caddies.

Players looking for lost ball must allow another match coming up, to pass them. All roads and streets are hazards.

A ball resting on the side of a bunker must be lifted and dropped back a club's length in the hazard.

All balls striking telegraph wires or poles when driving, may be re-teeed without penalty.

Turf cut or misplaced by a stroke in playing, must be at once replaced. Players shall not drive from the tee for any bogie three hole, until the putting green is clear.

Balls lying on putting greens other than the one played to, must be lifted and placed at the nearest point of the course.

A player in competition cannot play with one who is not a competitor unless by permission of the Greens Committee.

All scores must be attested by opponent.

Unless attested scores are handed in, a player will be started at scratch.

Tie games shall be decided by another round, to be played the same day, or another day as the Committee may direct.

After the flag has been removed caddies must leave the putting green until the players have holed out.

Charge for day's play, 50 cents; half day, 35 cents. Members playing before two o'clock will be charged for full day's play. Season tickets, ending December 31st, 1900, will be $10.00. Charge for guests, one dollar per day.

RULES GOVERNING LADIES' PLAY.

Ladies provided with regular cards of admission will be permitted to use the links every day UNTIL THREE O'CLOCK, SATURDAYS, SUNDAYS AND HOLIDAYS EXCEPTED. No charge for use of links.

CHARGE FOR CADDIES.

Every full hour, 15 cents. Every quarter hour or less, 5 cents. For shining clubs an additional fee of 5 cents.

No selection of caddies permitted.

No over-payment of caddies allowed.

Rules of the Cycling Committee.

Members may leave their wheels at the wheel-rooms of the City or Country Club houses, free of charge, for any period of time, as far as the facilities of the premises will permit. This, however, does not include cleaning or any repairs.

Checks for this service must be signed at the time of giving order.

Where possible, special repairs will be made, if desired, and at as low rates as possible, although the Committee believes that members are likely to receive better satisfaction by dealing directly with the Agents of the particular wheel which they ride, and therefore urges them to do so. This Committee will not purchase wheels for members, having made no arrangements to do so, neither will employees be allowed to execute any commissions.

For every wheel left at either wheel house a check will be given, and this check must be given up when the wheel is again taken out. No responsibility is assumed where a check is not taken by the member owning the wheel. Wheels will not be delivered to other than owners, excepting on delivery of a written order, which order must be accompanied by the check.

Insurance will only be carried on wheels for which a cleaning charge for six months or longer has been paid.

The wheel-room in the basement of the Bay Ridge house is for the storage of wheels of resident members only, other wheels should be left at the wheel-house on the ball field.

Complaints must be presented in writing to the Committee, otherwise they will receive no attention whatever. Members will oblige the Committee by not having any words with employees. If not satisfied in any particular, communicate with the Committee and the complaint or request will receive prompt attention. The employees will be instructed when members complain or find fault to refer such members to the Committee.
